INSIDE STRAIGHT was my introduction to the WILD CARDS universe. When this series was first conceived in 1987, the idea of a dark, more realistic take on the superhero genre must've felt pretty revolutionary.

Inside Straight (Wild Cards, #18) by George R.R. Martin

In poker, if you hold 5-6-8-9, you need the 7 (the "inside" card) to make a straight. But —if you plan your next move on a wild hope, on the rare chance of drawing the 7, rather than pursuing a statistically plausible strategy, you will almost always fail. Applied to writing this meant: be cautious, be modest in ambition, don't be foolish.
